Weekly Newsletter

Friday 22nd September

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a fantastic start to the school year over the last few weeks, with children enjoying their lessons and already showing great progress in their knowledge and skills. A reminder that all of our curriculum information is available on our website so that you can see what your child will be studying at school. You can also see how their learning progresses over time in each subject.

We have three exciting parent workshops coming up over the remainder of this half term. On Wednesday, at 9am, we are hosting a workshop about how to help keep children...

safe when they are online. On Thursday morning, Miss Williams is hosting a workshop all about Google Classrooms and on Tuesday 10th October, I will be hosting a workshop about how we mark children's books and how we give feedback to move learning forwards.

Parent consultation bookings will go live next week so please look out for the ParentMail. As always, if you have any questions, concerns or queries then please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is HOPE.

Open Events for Prospective Parents

Are you looking for a school place for your child to start September 2024?

We are hosting a range of open events for parents to come and see our amazing school and meet the team here at Ramsey Manor:

Monday 25th September- 5:30-6:30pm

Wednesday 4th October- 10-11am

Thursday 19th October- 10-11am

Thursday 2nd November- 10-11am

If you are unable to attend any of these events, please contact the school office and we will arrange a personal tour.

We are still seeing cases of parents parking inconsiderably which is not only unfair on local residents, it can also present a danger to children. Please think of others when parking.
