Weekly Newsletter

Friday 3rd November

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you are all well and that you had a restful and enjoyable half term break. It has been wonderful welcoming back all of the children this week as we continue with their learning journey. We have got a very exciting and busy half term ahead with lots of extracurricular activities taking place. Next week after school on Wednesday, we are inviting parents into school for our Black History Month gallery. We will also be having a special Remembrance assembly on Friday and we will be joined by Rev. Andrew for this. The following week, we will be marking World Diabetes Day on Tuesday 14th November.

Over the course of this half term, we will continue to add to our already extensive extracurricular offer with new clubs taking place before school, at lunch and after the school day so watch this space!

As always, if you have any questions, concerns or queries then please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for all of your support and cooperation.

Have a great weekend.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is RESILIENCE.

Curriculum Overviews

As a school, we are passionate about ensuring that parents have as much information as possible about what their child will be studying during their time with us at Ramsey Manor. We have now published updated curriculum overviews for each year group which gives you all of the information you require and more. Our website is full of information relating to our curriculum so that you are able to look year group by year group or subject by subject.

School is closed to pupils on Friday 24th November due to it being a staff training day. All of our term dates are published on our school website including for next academic year.
