Weekly Newsletter

Friday 14th June

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you are all well and that you have had an enjoyable week.

With our school Transition Day on the horizon on Thursday 27th June, I felt that this would be a good opportunity to explain when key communication would be sent to parents as we prepare for September 2024. On Thursday 20th June, you will receive further information relating to the next academic year. On Wednesday 26th June, you will receive information about who your child's class teacher will be next year and what class your child will be in. On Transition Day itself, you will drop off as normal in the morning and collect from the same classroom as normal. As part of the parent survey, we received feedback relating to homework. As a research-led school, our expectation around homework is guided by relevant research. Please see information relating to this on our website under the 'Learning' tab and then the 'Home Learning' tab. Wishing you all an enjoyable weekend.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is COURAGE.

PTA Summer Fete

Preparations are ramping up for the PTA Summer Fete on Friday 28th June, 2-5pm. On the day there will be different stalls, a BBQ, inflatables and much more. As a thank you from the PTA for your support with raffle tickets and luxury tombola donations, there will be a non-uniform day on the same day, Friday 28th June. We are hoping the sun will come out and it will be an amazing event. Thank you to our wonderful PTA for continuing to support the school so brilliantly.

A reminder that next week we will be celebrating World Music Day. A ParentMail was sent out on Monday with all of the details you need in relation to the school performance taking place. Fingers crossed for good weather!
